Full Paper Submission Procedure: Authors are invited to submit theoretical and empirical papers on the suggested topics (submission of abstracts or synopses will not be accepted). Papers will be evaluated and selected by the committee members in their specific area. Papers should be submitted electronically (pdf only) no later than 11:59 pm ET, February 18, 2019 to (there will be no extensions):

https://editorialexpress.com/cgi-bin/conference/conference.cgi?action=login&db_name=IAAE2019

Authors should specify if they are or not willing to present their paper in poster sessions or only in regular sessions.

Student Submission: Graduate students should indicate so when they submit their papers to the IAAE Conference, on the Conference Maker site, as this will make them eligible to receive travel sponsorship on a competitive basis, and to participate in the Student Prize contest.

Student Prize: The IAAE will award a $500 USD prize for the best paper presented by a graduate student in a regular or poster session. The paper should be submitted at the conference website. Papers co-authored with senior economists will not be considered. To be eligible, candidates' paper that are accepted for presentation should be followed up by a letter from a professor certifying that the author is a graduate student in good standing. The letter should be submitted electronically to Marcelle Chauvet at enquiries@appliedeconometrics.org. The subject line must be 2019 IAAE Student Prize Award. The winner will be announced during the conference.

Registration: Conference details will be posted on the IAAE's website:

<http://appliedeconometrics.org/> and at the conference website www.iaae2019.org
