

WEDNESDAY 18 MAY

19:00 – 19:45	STUDENT EVENT
19:45 – 20:00	BREAK
20:00 – 22:00	WORKSHOPS
	Therapeutic approaches with high psychopathy sexual and violent offending populations: Evidence, issues, and practice implications by Mark Olver	How to administer the clinical assessment of prosocial emotions, Version 1.1 (CAPE): Becoming CAPE-able by Paul Frick	Improving treatment outcomes for young children with conduct problems and callous-unemotional traits: an in-depth workshop on the whys and hows of parent-child interaction therapy for CU traits (PCITCU) by Eva Kimonis and Georgie Fleming
22:00 – 23:00	Psychopathy as lived experience Workshop Chair: Abigail Marsh Panelists: Lisa Michael, Patric Gagne, Jen Griffis

THURSDAY 19 MAY

19:00 – 20:15	OPENING REMARKS & PRESIDENTIAL ADDRESS
	Chairs: Essi Viding & Kostas Fanti
20:15 – 21:00	SYMPOSIUM Antisocial behavior and CU traits in youth: Novel behavioral genetics, neuroimaging, and neurocognitive data from across the globe Chair: Josanne van Dongen and Stephane De Brito	SYMPOSIUM Innovative theories and studies provide new insights into relationships between psychopathy and emotional function Chair: David S. Kosson
21:00 – 21:15	BREAK
21:15 – 22:00	GROUP TALK Structural and functional brain correlates of psychopathy and CU traits in adults and youths Chair: John Tully	GROUP TALK Measurement and correlates of psychopathy and CU traits in adults and youths Chair: Nathalie Fontaine
22:00 – 22:15	BREAK
22:15 – 23:00	POSTER SESSION 1

FRIDAY 20 MAY

19:00 – 19:45	SYMPOSIUM Controversial issues in psychopathy research: The way forward Chair: Adrian Raine and Essi Viding	SYMPOSIUM Emotion processing and dysregulation: Neurophysiological assessment and intervention Chair: Chara Demetriou and Maria Petridou
19:45 – 20:00	BREAK
20:00 – 21:00	BLITZ TALKS
21:00 – 22:00	RD HARE LIFETIME ACHIEVEMENT AWARD Chair: Abigail Marsh
22:00 – 22:15	BREAK
22:15 – 23:00	SYMPOSIUM Exploring outcomes and interventions for youth with primary and secondary CU traits Chair: Stephanie Craig	SYMPOSIUM The impact of psychopathic traits on others: At work and beyond Chair: Hedwig Eisenbarth and Kasia Uzieblo

SATURDAY 21 MAY

19:00 – 19:45	SYMPOSIUM Callous-unemotional traits and social-emotional functioning in children and young people Chair: Jennifer Allen	SYMPOSIUM The many faces of affective processing in psychopathy: Multi-method investigations Chair: Carlo Garofalo
19:45 – 20:45	JS NEWMAN EARLY CAREER AWARD Chair: Eva Kimonis
20:45 – 21:00	BREAK
21:00 – 21:45	POSTER SESSION 2
21:45 – 22:30	SYMPOSIUM Interpersonal exploitation: Psychopathic traits and the identification and manipulation of others Chair: Adelle Forth	SYMPOSIUM Cardiac indicators of risk for psychopathy and antisocial behavior: New findings, next steps Chair: Bridget Bertoldi
22:30 – 22:45	BREAK
22:45 – 23:00	CHERYL WYNNE HARE AWARD AND CLOSING REMARKS Chairs: Andrea Glenn & Essi Viding	