To Whom It May Concern,

In 2015, Easy Conference organised our EHPS conference in Limassol Cyprus. We were very impressed by their professionalism, nothing was ever too much trouble for Petros Stratis and his team. The conference ran smoothly and our delegates were very satisfied with the entire conference experience. The attention to detail, politeness and dedication is second to none. Day or night, Mr. Stratis and his team were on hand to respond to any issue or query. In the aftermath of the conference all financial matters were dealt with in a clear and efficient manner. Communication with Mr. Stratis and his team has been effortless and their responsiveness is immediate.

Easy Conferences have worked successfully with EHPS, organising and coordinating our annual conferences in 2016 Aberdeen, Scotland, 2017 Padua, Italy and now this year in 2018 Galway, Ireland.

The most important aspect of dealing with Mr. Stratis and his team is the knowledge that we don't need to worry about the organisation and running of our conference. This is due to the passion and humanity of the Easy Conferences team. We have no hesitation in recommending Easy Conferences and look forward to our continuing collaboration for many years to come.

Sincerely,

Karen Morgan
